

Kiona Wines Win Big (Again) at the Seattle Wine Awards

After coming home with three awards in the 2009 Seattle Wine Awards last year, Kiona has outdone itself in 2010 by earning three Double Golds and a Silver for the 2010 event. The Seattle Wine Awards is the most prestigious and comprehensive independent Washington wine recognition program in the world. On April 24th and 25th, 15 of Washington's most prominent wine professionals tasted and evaluated hundreds of Washington wines in a single-blind format (meaning they knew the varietal but not the price nor producer) and awarded the top wines with Double Gold, Gold, Silver, and Bronze awards of Excellence.

DOUBLE GOLD

Kiona 2006 Estate Red Mountain Lemberger (Red Varietal: $20.00 and Under)

DOUBLE GOLD

Kiona 2004 Estate Red Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon (Cabernet Sauvignon: $20.01 - $35.00)

DOUBLE GOLD

Kiona 2008 Chenin Blanc Ice Wine (Dessert Styles, All Pricing)

SILVER

Kiona 2008 Late Harvest Riesling (Dessert Styles, All Pricing)

Regarded as one of the foremost growing areas in the world, Washington State's famed Red Mountain Appellation was pioneered by the Williams family of Kiona, who first planted vines there in 1975. Three proud generations of winemaking and viticultural excellence contribute to Kiona's success.
