Red Mountain Fortuna Estate (Best Buy) A multi-vintage blend of cabernet (2015), carmenère (2017) and malbec (2018), this is a compelling, exotic success. Its mild scents of smoke and cedar overlay a graham-cracker oak component; underneath, the deep black-plum and fig flavors have a suave, velvety texture, sexy and brooding at once. This would pair beautifully with dry-aged beef. Reviewed by Patrick J. Comiskey.
